How to Create Doodle Entries

The deadline for registration is March 2, 2011, 11:59PM Pacific Time.

Before your child or student (“Entrant”) starts Doodling, please complete a Parent Consent Form, available in the Necessary Forms section (listed on the Info for Registrants page of the Doodle 4 Google contest web site at www.google.com/doodle4google). Only Entrants who have a signed Parent Consent Form can participate in this Contest.

1. Download the Google logo template available in the Necessary Forms section (listed on the Info for Registrants page of the Doodle 4 Google contest web site at www.google.com/doodle4google). Print out the logo template on a white, landscape sheet of 8.5 x 11-inch paper for each participating Entrant.
2. Start Doodling! Doodles can be created with colored pencils, crayons, markers, paint, or using computer drawing or design software (unfortunately we can't accept entries which use additional materials to create 3D effects).
3. Make sure the Google logo remains clearly visible and recognizable in the Doodles you submit, as the winning Doodle will be displayed on Google's U.S. homepage.
4. Entrants must write:
 - A title for their Doodle
 - A supporting statement of up to 50 words explaining this year's contest theme: “What I'd like to do someday...”.

How to Submit Doodle Entries

1. Complete an Entry Form for each Entrant's Doodle. Submit as many doodles as you would like, but keep in mind we only allow one unique doodle per Entrant.
2. Staple a signed and completed Entry Form and Parent Consent Form to each Doodle you submit. If you have multiple Entrants Doodling, please select one person as your primary contact at your organization or home.
3. Write the unique pre-registration ID number you received when registering on the Contest website, along with the Entrant's first and last name on the front of the Doodle (artwork) in the space provided on the template and this Entry Form.
4. Mail your entries to:
