

March is Reading month here at St. Paul's!

We are WILD ABOUT READING and WILD ABOUT BOOKS!

The 1st week of March students were invited to write a caption for an animal picture posted on our display in the school hallway. Stop by and see/read what they envision an animal saying! (Okay, teachers entered this contest, too!) Puzzle pieces were given to those who wrote captions and had them posted and they chose a small prize from the “jungle bag” Mrs. Armock has in her zoo, er, I mean, library. The puzzle will be completed by the end of March and we just have to wait and see what it is! Lower elementary grades also heard the story, Wild About Books, by Judy Sierra. This is a rhyming book dedicated to Dr. Seuss and a real joy to read aloud! Do you know what kind of book a panda wants to read, or what the llamas read?

This week, March 7 through 10, no school on Friday, we will “track” animals...Identify an animal by the tracks they make.

Next week more trivia and more prizes!

The 4th week of March, on March 23rd, John Ball Zoo will be visiting us with a live animal presentation. We are excited to see what they bring. It is a surprise! Trivia game continues this week too.

The last week of March students have the opportunity to answer a trivia question each day and win more puzzle pieces and prizes. Look on the library page of our school website for clues. For those unable to access <http://www.stpaul-school.org> the clue will be posted at school.

Enjoy reading at home, at school, and even at the zoo!
